Found an email from Kate that mentioned Maureen Gwinn as the project manager! So that's a bit more helpful. That email and files are attached.

Vince was peripherally involved in the project too. Matt (Martin) was an original stakeholder of the project, and Nisha Sipes used the database while she was a postdoc at NCCT– sources of the NCCT connection.

Please let me know if you have any questions. The access file has .piz as the extension, which should be changed to .zip to extract.

Hi, no worries. Today is no good for me, I'll be in meetings for the rest of the day (probably til 7pm ☺).

For tomorrow, I have 1:00-1:25pm...can you work with that?

Thanks,

Samantha

Hey!

Sorry for the delay – I was at home yesterday and don't always get my messages forwarded.
Are you around today after 4pm? Or tomorrow before 10 (early is fine) or 1-3:30/after 4?
